Elections to the Urban Municipal Bodies

3802. SHRIMATI CHANDRAKALA PANDEY:
SHRI MD. SALIM:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) what time limit was set for holding elections to the urban municipal bodies under the provisions of the Constitution (74th Amendment Act, 1992);

(b) whether the same has been complied by the States and the municipal bodies;

(c) if not, the details thereof, Statewise and municipality-wise;

(d) what action Government propose to take to implement the provision of the Constitution, in the event of non-compliance, if any?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN AFFAIRS & EMPLOYMENT (DR. U. VENKATESWARLU): (a) The Constitution (74th Amendment) Act, 1992 does not set any time limit within which municipal elections are to be held. However, it contemplates that the municipal bodies would have to be in place immediately after the then existing laws were brought in line with the Constitutional provisions. States which have not constituted municipal bodies in accordance with the amended municipal laws have to take immediate steps for constituting municipal bodies within such time as is absolutely necessary for completing the election process.

(b) and (c) Most of the States have already completed the election process for instituting municipal bodies in accordance with the amended municipal laws. A Statement showing the details of municipal elections in various State/Union Territories is enclosed (see below).

(d) All States where the Constitution (74th Amendment) Act, 1992 is applicable have already implemented the provisions of the said Act by amending their Municipal Laws.
